

VIDEO

Flora is a seed repository dedicated to collecting⁽¹⁾, archiving⁽²⁾ and distributing⁽³⁾ native Irish wildflowers. Over 100 native Irish plants are now classified as endangered. Flora is essential in preventing disease, climate change, and biodiversity loss. We rely on the support of people to assist in the re-introduction of these wildflowers across Ireland by distributing seeds in their local area.

READ MORE

The Archive

Our online archive provides information on each individual specimen. This key indicates the most rare, common and uncommon plants in Ireland. Search the habitats below

Common

Uncommon

Rare

- Search Habitat +
- Coastal
- Bogland
- Woodland
- Grassland

#1115

no. 1115

pa 1115

Bird's-foot Trefoil
Lotus Corniculatus

Bird's-foot Trefoil
Lotus Corniculatus

Bird's-foot Trefoil
Lotus Corniculatus